Come and celebrate 100 years of the Institute for welding professionals, organised by London Branch, with a lively social event to which members and their partners are invited.

We will cruise the river Thames on The Golden Salamander from Westminster between Canary Wharf and Putney, returning to Westminster Pier to arrive at about 10:00 p.m.

- Reception with Prosecco/fruit juice
- A quality two course buffet meal with seating at tables for 80 persons
- Bottles of white and red wine on the tables for sharing
- Coffee, tea and petit fours

… and a jazz band to make the party go with a swing, so you can dance or just tap your toes.
